COUNCIL TAKES UP REFERENDUM PETITION AGAINST ANNEXATION OF DOELGER SUB-DIVISION MONDAY

Ordinance No. 279, approved by city council on July 26, will be considered again by that body at city hall Monday, in the face of a referendum petition signed by the 900 Daly City residents, and filed to the council by City Clerk B. C. Ross.

The ordinance annexed 432 acres of land under development by Doelger, Inc. The petition is in opposition to the annexation ordinance, although some members of the council claimed they were not necessarily against the exaction, but wanted the matter to be voted upon by the people.

The council has the alternative of cancelling the ordinance outright or of putting it on the ballot, despite light objection by County Clerk William Augustus to putting the proposition on the ballot in the general election in November.

It was a foregone conclusion that the council would vote to refer the matter to the people.

Diane Shinn, who was first candidate for Portola Queen contest, Diane, of Charlie Low's "Forbidden City," and Ann Buecher are far ahead of the other 29 Queen candidates.

The month-long campaign to elect a Queen of the Portola Festival and Pageant has opened with a bang. In the field, all out to win the honor, are 29 candidates, young women of many racial descents, testifying to the cosmopolitanism of San Francisco.

The first count of votes will be made tomorrow, September 10, and whoever is in the lead at that time will win the coveted honor of going on the Portola coast-to-coast flight, via an American Airlines flag ship, with a party of 50 city and festival officials headed by Mayor Elmer E. Robinson.

This unique odyssey is scheduled to visit nine cities from Dallas to New York and including St. Louis, Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, Washington, Philadelphia and Boston.

This preliminary victory of the candidates will not effect the final results of the election to be announced at the close of polls October 1; she will still have to beat the field.

Evenly influenced by the fact that this is presidential election year, several of the candidates for the Portola Queenship have set up regular campaign organizations patterned after those of political parties.

Outstanding among these enterprising moves is the case of Diane Shinn, Charlie Low has converted the foyer of his Forbidden City into a campaign headquarters, replete with banners, placards and a ballot box.

Low openly invites everyone to stuff his ballot box as much as they please so long as the ballots are cast for Miss Shinn. Such stuffing is legal in this particular election.

The Queen-elect will be crowned at a coronation ball in her honor at the Edgewater Beach ballroom October 16 after having made an aerial journey to Hollywood to appear on the Queen-For-a-Day radio program there. On October 17, this Queen will join the 1948 version of Doris Gaspar de Portola in leading the grand parade with which Carnival Week in San Francisco will be opened.

Local Girl In Queen Contest For Portola

Among a score of Golden Gate beauties entered in San Francisco's Portola Queen contest is Daly City's Candy Portola, of 5997 Mission street.

The winner of the title will reign as queen of the Portola Festival in October.

COUNTY TO VOTE ON APPOINTIVE MANAGER

San Mateo county voters will decide whether or not the county executive shall become an appointive official of the Board of Supervisors. This was decided Tuesday when the board voted to put the proposition on the Nov. 2 ballot.

This was the only proposition selected by the board from among a score of recommendations for changes in the county charter which had been submitted by two separate charter study committees.

The proposition will read: "Shall section 1 of article IV of the charter of the county of San Mateo, which now provides for an elective county executive, be amended to provide for an appointive manager, and shall sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 be added to said article IV to provide for the method of appointment and removal of said appointive manager and to prescribe his powers and duties?"

Voters must vote "Yes" or "No" on the proposition. The sections in their entirety will not be placed on the ballot.

The county at large will also vote on a five man harbor commission, to replace the present three-man commission. This group will be the governing body for the $450,000 Pillar Point breakwater at Half Moon Bay, to shelter small boats and fishing craft.

Officials for the forthcoming Golden Gate Fields fall meeting which convenes Tuesday, September 14 for 41 days, have been approved by the California Horse Racing Board, it has been announced by vice-president and general manager Frank W. Clark.

The Board of Stewards will be comprised of Chester C. Jones, representing the California Horse Racing Board; James F. Gallagher and R. E. Leightner. These men, all nationally prominent in racing, will serve as racing officials during the 1947 Golden Gate Fields meeting.

Norris Royden, whose appointment was announced several months ago, will serve as racing secretary and handicapper. Padlock Judge will be Timothy P. Sexton, while placing judges will be Ivan Thomas, George D. Murphy and William Milner. Patrol Judges will be Charles Mullhamer, John J. Smith, Albert Shellen and John H. Glendower.

The veteran Eddie Thomas will again send the fields away as starter, while R. F. Brown will serve as official timer. Robert V. Rossi will be clerk of scales, assisted by Eddie Hayes, who will also be custodian of the jockeys' room.

The three veterinarians will be Drs. L. J. Cook, John T. Morris and O. H. Longley, the latter representing the California Horse Racing Board.

Workers Needed In Com. Chest Drive For $6,000

With preparatory plans completed for the Community Chest drive, October 1 to 15, Daly City Chairman Frank B. Blum was still lining up volunteer solicitors to help attain the local quota of $6,000.

Blum said he expected to appoint residential and business chairmen next week, but asserted there was no limit on the number of volunteers who could take part.

Interested workers may sign up at 6454 Mission street or by phoning Mr. Blum at JU 1000 or DO 4000-25700.

Needy children, the disabled, Girl and Boy Scouts are among the many groups which benefit from Community Chest funds.

Ocean View Church Celebrates Ninth Year Sunday

"Our Protestant Heritage" will be the topic this Sunday of the Rev. Joseph Bennett's anniversary sermon at the Ocean View Congregational Community Church.

The small church on Broad street near Plymouth will celebrate its ninth anniversary with a Sunday School rally for children of all ages. Sunday School classes are held at 9:45 a. m.

ELECTION OFFICERS NEEDED AT ONCE

County Clerk W. H. Augustus today advised that applications to serve as Election Officers have been placed in the mail to all persons who served at the Primary Election.

"Many vacancies will occur on various boards throughout the county due to the inability of those who have previously served to again act at the forthcoming election," said Augustus.

Persons able to assist in the conduct of the November 2nd General Election in their locality should make application to do so immediately as appointments to the boards must be made not later than September 18th.

Application forms for this purpose are available at the offices of all City Clerks in the county or may be obtained at the Election Registration Department, Court House, Redwood City.

All eligible persons should offer their services to assure early completion of the Precinct Boards and the proper conduct of the election.

Council Approves New Equipment For Streets And Water

Two items of equipment for the city street and water departments were approved by the city council at a caucus meeting Monday.

The council authorized purchase of an oil emulsion sprayer to be used in repaving and maintenance of streets. The machine, which holds 200 gallons of street mix, is expected to cost in the neighborhood of $785.

Installation of a float control valve atop water department reservoir No. 2 was also ordered, and Water Superintendent A. J. Bodien was directed to prepare specifications for the project. Two and a half miles of wire will be strung between the reservoir and the Citrus avenue pump house, with a float control on the reservoir and a shut-off relay at the pump house end.

This will prevent overflowing at the reservoir, which in the past has sometimes sent a miniature river down East Vista avenue.

Benches Installed On Mission Street At Westlake, Market

The dubious pleasure of waiting for transportation was made slightly less trying last week with the installation of benches at two thoroughfares in Daly City.

Benches were installed at Market and Mission street intersections by Advertisers, Inc., after being granted permission by the city council and by neighboring residents.

Measuring 30 inches in width, the seats are each marked with an advertising strip two by eight feet long. Installation and maintenance costs will be borne entirely by Advertisers, Inc. The company also is required to secure insurance freeing the city of any liability which may result from installation of the benches.

Callan Called Real Estate Man By Mistake

In reporting a charge of battery filed by Tom Callan sr. against Lewis McGill of Halfmoon Bay last week The Record erroneously referred to Callan as a real estate broker. Mr. Callan is a retired businessman—his sons, Carter and Tom, Jr. are in the real estate business.

The suit developed when McGill allegedly attempted to run Callan down with his car in a dispute over a grain crop near Miramar.

Burlingame Tells The Fiesta To Keep Signs Off Its Sidewalks

Burlingame is part of San Mateo county, but it has its own ideas on publicity for the county Fiesta which opens in Belmont on September 24.

Fiesta publicists have stenciled sidewalks throughout the county with the phrase, "Meet Me at the Fiesta."

The Burlingame council ordered the signs removed from Burlingame sidewalks when they learned no permission had been granted by the police department to stencil the sidewalks.

SOUTH S. F. BUILDS CITY HALL ANNEX

Work on an annex to South San Francisco's city hall will begin soon, after councilmen granted a $124,983 contract for the work. J. A. Bettencourt, San Bruno contractor, was low bidder.

The annex will house new jail facilities, police offices, radio room and a court room.

Market Street's "New Look"

THIS VIEW of San Francisco's main downtown artery shows results of recent moves by city transit officials to speed up traffic. Buses have replaced streetcars on the two outer tracks, which will be torn up next Spring. Streetcars now run only on the two inner tracks, except East of Geary street. Other changes include skipstops, relocation of safety zones and gradual introduction of new streamlined trolley cars.

GIRL SCOUT CAMP ON SAN BRUNO MOUNTAIN CLOSING FOR SEASON

For fifty weeks out of the year, Camp Matrup is a lonely place. The campsite in the Colma hills is a bird and squirrel domain. The sun shines for the pleasure of the trees, and not a human ear records the song of the humming birds.

But mid-August brings a change to the 17-acre tract of wooded hillside. For two weeks at the end of each summer, the nature calls are blended with delighted squeals of little children, and the wind shares its berth with campfires and laughing child-play.

Each year, before the exciting tempo of back-to-school days, the Girl Scouts of Daly City and neighboring communities take their vacation. Daily during late August, the children wend their way through the foothills above Hillside boulevard to romp and play, shout and sing in the free air of a forest-like setting just outside the city.

Camp Matrup is the Girl Scouts' and Brownies' day camp. For many, it is the symbol of all innovations. It is the place they first learn to cook; to appreciate the beauties of nature; to share their play and work with other children. For some, it is the one opportunity for outdoor life—a chance to learn the fun of "roughing-it" in the forest.

A couple of weeks ago, Camp Matrup closed up for the winter. Signs pinned to the trees near each of the girls' eight working units held a sorry note. "Goodbye Until Next Year," they said; or "Back to School—See You Next Summer." The children folded up their equipment, but the finishing touches on their memory books and assembled in the main clearing to sing their camp songs—for the last time this year.

Day camping in the Colma hills is a big event in the lives of the girls who attend and of the women who volunteer their time and training for the two-week sessions.

Bids For Work On Garden Village School Called

Bids for the construction and installation of a rainwater drain on the future site of the Garden Village school were called for this week by James Snell, school superintendent.

Snell said the drain will run through the school property, connecting with the drain, which serves the Stoneson housing development.

The superintendent also announced this week that refrigerators will be installed at Woodrow Wilson Primary School, General Pershing and Jefferson Elementary Schools for refrigeration of milk. These three schools will get the refrigerators, he said, since afternoon kindergarten classes require that milk be stored from the time of morning delivery. The purchase was authorized by the board of trustees at its last meeting.

GARBAGE SERVICE

Local residents wishing to discuss pick-up of garbage or refuse should not call the police department.

The Daily City Scavenger Co., located at 6669 Mission street, near Parkview avenue, maintains an office for inquiries and complaints. The phone number is JU 1000-4-0700.

DALY CITY MUSTANG GRIDDERS MEET FAVORED PIEDMONT TEAM SUNDAY AT JEFFERSON AFTER BEATING OAKLAND

Spurred on by a taste of victory's blood in their first start, the Daly City Mustangs gridgers were polishing up their performance to meet a highly-touted Piedmont A.C. eleven Sunday at 11 a.m. at Jefferson high stadium. The Mustangs had little trouble in besting the Oakland all-star team last week by a 19-0 score.

Backfield stars Joe Tudoni, Jack Rainey, Bob Plyer and Ralph Andriola showed flashes of mid-season form in last week's game, and Coach Harlan Ferrando worked the Mustangs hard all this week to polish up the rough spots in his single-wing back offensive strategy. With Tudoni passing to big Hank Steele at end, the Mustangs have a versatile air attack.

Ferrando used practically his entire squad against Oakland, and was not quite certain as to his starting line-up for Sunday's Piedmont tussle.

The Piedmont eleven, boasting such stars as ex-Stanford Don Zappitini, one of the fastest backs on the coast; Guard Ernie Feigenberg, of the Oakland Giants pro team and his teammate, Bill Gantt at tackle; Bob Bell and Glen Bilyeu of College of Pacific, are favored over the Mustangs in Sunday's game at Jefferson.

Sunday will be the last chance for Daly City spectators to watch the Mustangs until October 3, for the locals go on the road for two weeks following the Piedmont game.

Admission is one dollar for adults, fifty cents to those with student body cards and twenty-five cents for children.

Probable starting line-ups:

N. Tudoni	LTR
Cocciellato	LGR
Frances	C

Schools To Open Monday, Sept. 13th

Sorrow and gladness are in conflict today in the emotions of local school children, as September 13, the first day of school, draws near.

Joy is winning—Natch!

Vacations will end, playclothes will be stored in the chest up in the attic, and stationers will make a fortune on new pencils, binders, note paper and ink. Weekly allowances are due for a drop. But routine and efficiency will rise.

On Monday, an estimated 1200 students—from kindergarten thru 12th grade—will be returning to their classrooms at Jefferson Union High School and the six schools in the Jefferson Elementary School district.

Registration for classes in all schools will take place Monday, since no pre-school days have been reserved for the purpose. Some high school students, however, appeared at the school yesterday to affect changes in their curriculums.

According to James Snell and Stanford Hannah, superintendents of the elementary district and high school, respectively, school hours will remain the same as last year.

Parochial School Reaches Capacity

With 460 students enrolled for the fall semester, Our Lady of Perpetual Help parochial school on Wellington avenue is crowded to capacity, school authorities announced this week. The fall term opened last Tuesday, a week ahead of the public schools in the district.

The new school, completed little more than a year ago, has full classes in all grades from kindergarten through the eighth grade, and many registrations could not be accepted due to this fact.

Man, your salvation is at hand! Daily scraping will henceforth become a social error—nay, a felonious offense! From now until the San Mateo County Fiesta, that is.

The county will resemble a college Pioneer Day season this month, with male residents competing for prizes in a county-wide "whiskering" contest to come off on the opening day of the fiesta, September 24. Sponsored by the San Mateo Chamber of Commerce, the competition will offer prizes for two champions—the Bluebeard with the toughest mane and the one with the fullest.

Armed Robbers Get $875 From Cafe

An all-points bulletin was dispatched today by the Daly City Police department in search of two armed bandits who made off with $875 in cash and jewelry Wednesday night after holding up the Silver Moon cafe, 212 School street.

The robbery was reported shortly before midnight Wednesday by Frank Ratto, bartender, who told police the holdup men made their getaway in an automobile. A description of the vehicle was unobtainable.

Patrons said the two men, one slight and dark, the other tall, blond and husky, entered the barroom separately. After ordering a drink, they said, the younger, blond fellow went back to the restrooms, while the other played with the pin-ball machine. Returning to the front end of the bar, Ratto told the police, the darker man produced a shiny black .45 automatic and instructed his companion to collect wallets and jewelry from the patrons. Ratto said he was forced to open the cash register and hand over $165. The loot was collected in a lady's black felt hat taken from one of the customers.

As the pair left the barroom, the gunman reportedly warned, "The first one to stick his head outside this door gets a hole through it."

A whiskey glass left on the bar by one of the bandits was smudged, police said, and revealed no legible fingerprints.

Patrolman Named To Broadmoor Job

James Thomas, former police patrolman at Kensington Park, near Berkeley, has been named to the job of patrolman for Broadmoor Village.

News of Thomas' appointment was disclosed last week by Edward J. McGuirk, representative of Broadmoor's temporary police commission. Funds for the police work are acquired by a new finance plan by which property owners of the village pay $1 each per month.

According to McGuirk, the patrolman's job is a temporary one—created for protection of the unincorporated village until the establishment of an official police district. The patrolman must work seven days each week.

Negotiations with the county board of supervisors for the establishment of a police district got underway last month, the commissioner said, when a formal application was filed.

Daly City, Colma Escape Holiday Traffic Toll

The high traffic death toll over the Labor Day week end in California, which saw five persons die in San Mateo county alone, skipped over the Daly City and Colma vicinities without a fatal accident.

Only one accident was reported over the three-day period by the California Highway Patrol, when a 25-year-old San Francisco man survived a 100-foot roll down the Christensen branch road two miles west of Junipero Serra boulevard.

Ellison T. Hargrove was taken to Junipero Serra Hospital where he was treated for chest and shoulder bruises and released.

Minor property damage resulted in other traffic mishaps in the vicinity.

WEEKEND WATER

Jean and Pete Markovich, with infant Frankie along for company, spent the Labor Day week end at the sumptuous Heggblades ranch near Auburn. Mrs. Markovich is a niece of the Heggblades.

Kids Help Ev Larson Celebrate 8th Year

Refreshments and games were the main attractions at the Larson home, 462 Bellevue avenue, on September 1 when a birthday party was celebrated for 8-year-old Evelyn Larson.

Little Patsy Moody won the game prize, while Alfred Runge, Linda McArdle and Carol McKenna were rewarded for being first in their classes.

Other guests were Barbara Big-notti, Linda and Sharon Hart, Joan and Carol Morris, Barbara Periera, Noreen Bradley, Patricia, Esther and Eddie Larson. The last three are brothers and sisters of Evelyn.

1948 Admission Day Marks 98 Years Of State In Union

On September 9, 1950, President Millard Fillmore signed a bill admitting the newly created State of California into the Union.

Word of this long-anticipated, long-prayed-for event did not reach San Francisco and the rest of the state for nearly six weeks. But when it finally came, the disclosure touched off a state-wide jubilation that continued for almost a fortnight.

From mining camps to the largest cities, the occasion was honored with parades, speeches and salutes. California's acceptance into the Union was a welcome innovation. For while its federal affiliation was far from adequate in bringing law and order to the west, it ended the bitter wrangling among counties over slavery and taxes.

Since that day 98 years ago, September 9 has been set aside for the commemoration of California's birth. For nearly a century, the state has reserved this day for a repeat of the jubilant celebration which greeted the news of her merging with the United States of America.

VFW DANCE OCT. 2 AT BAY MEADOWS

It's guaranteed that couples will swing and sway, jitterbug and fox trot to the musical tones produced by Ray Hackett and his orchestra at the V. F. W. dance to be given at the Bay Meadows Clubhouse October 2.

Maestro Hackett is a busy, sought-after man these days. He and his 13 piece orchestra recently concluded a popular engagement at the Hotel Mark Hopkins in San Francisco. Currently, their tune combinations can be heard over Station KQW on different shows 10 times weekly.

Sponsored by county-wide V. F. W. posts, this year's dance is the first of what promises to become a yearly event. Plans are under way now to make the dance a V. F. W. dance "must" on the list of Peninsula activities. Among the V. F. W. posts throughout San Mateo county sponsoring the event are: Half Moon Bay, San Bruno, San Mateo, Burlingame, Millbrae, Woodside, Sharp Park, Daly City, San Carlos, Redwood City and Brisbane posts.

Proceeds realized from the dance project will be used for purposes of hospital relief.

Gold Star Stamp Due For Issue September 21

John F. Flax, acting postmaster, announced today that the post office department will issue a 3-cent stamp through the Washington, D. C., post office, on September 21, in honor of the Gold Star Mothers.

The design of the stamp depicts a palm branch on which is superimposed a star, and the words "Gold Star Mothers" in dark modified Roman.

For the benefit of collectors desiring stamps of selected quality for philatelic use, the 3-cent Gold Star Mothers commemorative stamp will be available at the Philatelic Agency, Post Office Department, Washington 25, D. C., on and after September 21, 1948. To insure prompt shipment, mail orders to the agency should include no other stamp issues. The Philatelic Agency does not service first-day covers.

Girl Scout Camp Closes For Season

Since a few years ago when Matt-rup Jensen, then owner of the campsite, first loaned his property to the Girl Scout Council, it has become a much-anticipated vacation for almost a hundred girls each year. The project is financed by small contributions from the girls; the local Community Chest making good all deficits.

This year, as in all previous sessions, the youngsters divided themselves into separate units for supervised play and work. The youngest Brownies called themselves the "Forest Creatures," and printed their name prominently on a sign marking their camp. Similar placards, reading "Hillside Haven," "Kangaroo Court," or "Chipmunk Camp," were displayed at each unit site. Off to the south of the main camp area, the printed words, "Tomahawk Gap," marked the boys' unit, where sons of a few of the Scout leaders set up their equipment. Attending as guests of the Brownies and Girl Scouts, the boys lent their help with the various chores and worked on the Camp Mattrup yearbook.

Setting up camp each day at 10 a.m., under the direction of two leaders, each unit prepares its own lunch menu and cooks its own meal. The cooking begins after flag-raising on the central level, where retreat is heard at the end of the day. Cleanup duties after lunch are fun for the girls. Improving sinks and drains on their picnic tables, they allot a separate chore to each member, and the work is done to the accompaniment of camp songs issued forth from now well-fortified lungs.

Craft work and nature study usually occupy the afternoon hours, after the rest period from 1-2 p.m. when leaders meet at the central camp to plan activities and work on the yearbook. Wood-carving and weaving are some of the more popular crafts; the girls displaying their handiwork at afternoon assemblies. Throughout the camp, tiny red crepe-paper "feeders," containing honey for the humming birds, add patches of bright color to the woods.

Mrs. Muriel Pabst, executive director of the day camp, says no other mode of vacation quite equals these two weeks for her. Called "Sprig" by the youngsters, Mrs. Pabst is a daily visitor to each of the units, encouraging the girls in their work and joining the games. Like many of the day camp leaders, "Sprig" participated in these same activities in her own childhood, as a Brownie and later, a Girl Scout.

"Flicker," the nickname affectionately bestowed upon Mrs. Dorothy Kramer, was inspired by her photography around camp. Mrs. Kramer appears unexpectedly at the various units, taking pictures of the girls at play. Motherly Mrs. Hilda Heagney, a veteran worker with Girl Scouts, has the job of assistant director of day camp in charge of intermediate Scouts. The girls call her "oriole," one of the bird names reserved for their leaders. Mrs. Angie Thurn, assistant director in charge of Brownies, is called "Bluebird," and Mrs. Virginia Davidson, camp nurse, is "Bob-White." "Mother Nature" is the appropriate name given to Mrs. Billie Cripps, nature instructor. Mrs. Lorraine Cady, program aide, is called "Lory." Mrs. Marge Caldwell, crafts instructor, is "Mallard," and Mrs. Emma O'Keefe's wood-carving talents earned her the title, "Woody Woodpecker."

Other women who devote two weeks of their vacation time each year to work with the Girl Scouts and Brownies are Mesdames Edna Mullen, Thelma Hamilton, Frieda Cady, Cecile Saranen, Lorraine Todhunter, Jerry Hatt, Marie Miller, Kay Sundermann, Edith Anderson, Bessie Runge, June Boynton, Sue Hopman and Edith Dewyler. And two weeks are not all the time they give; not by far. All year long, Scout leaders give a good part of each week directing the youngsters in their club activities.

Today Camp Mattrup is deserted. The birds and the squirrels are twirling and chattering about their happy time at camp, and the wind is lonely for the familiar sounds of laughing children. A paper sign, drooping at the edges from the weathering evening fog, poses on a tree near the central level: "Goodbye Until Next Year."

Thomas Carreiro, 40, 53 Shakespear street, was pronounced dead on arrival at Junipero Serra Hospital last Thursday evening.

A native of Kona, Hawaii, Carreiro had resided in Daly City for the past year. He was employed as a rigger. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Maurine Carreiro, and three children.

Carreiro was taken to the hospital in the county ambulance, in answer to a telephone summons from a neighbor.

Puneral services were conducted Saturday from the chapel of W. C. Lasswell Mortuary, followed by mass at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church with interment at Holy Cross Cemetery.

Bill Higgins Serving Aboard Navy Destroyer

William F. Higgins Jr., USN, of 146 Woodrow street, Daly City, is serving aboard the destroyer USS Lyman K. Swenson which has just been awarded the Battle Efficiency Pennant and "E" for her general excellence throughout the fiscal year July 1, 1947 to July 1, 1948.

This qualifies him to wear the Battle Efficiency "E" badge on his uniform, an old peacetime practice in the Navy revived with this recent award.

By Paul Green

The wishes of hundreds and hundreds of children (who are children no longer) over a span of thirty years have finally been realized.

We're speaking of all those who attended the old Vista Grande grammar school on Mission at Parkview avenue. The old firetrap has been scuttled for many years now, but only last month did the dreams of many of the children who attended its classes come true.

We ourselves attended the third, fourth, fifth and sixth grades at Vista Grande, and many's the day we wished it would fall down—with a candy store put up in its place. Probably every kid who attended the school had the same wish.

Our wishes were realized last month, when Williams' Candy store opened on the old location.

Now, if a few more wishes would fulfill themselves . . .

34 SCHOOL DISTRICTS

Did you know that there are about 34 different school districts in San Mateo county? We didn't, either, but the fact was verified when we paid a visit to County Superintendent of Schools Pansy Jewett Abbott with Claude Hanrahan of Broadmoor.

Each of the multifarious districts carries its own administrative overhead, which may be one of the reasons education is such an expensive proposition.

According to Miss Abbott, a county-wide committee has made a study of possible reorganization and re-grouping of the districts, but no definite conclusions have been recommended due to state legislative obstacles and the fact that many of the small districts apparently wish to continue as they are, each with its own board of trustees.

While talking with the county superintendent, it was also interesting to learn that all parts of San Mateo county do not contribute taxes to the San Mateo Junior College. South San Francisco, Pescadero and the Sequoia district, being unified districts, do not pay direct taxes to maintenance of the county J.C. Instead, students from those areas may attend any junior college in the state and the particular school attended then bills the particular district on a basis of class-hours attended by students from that district. They pay, then, only for actual attendance by pupils from the district.

It seems to us, then, that such a system should be employed in the Jefferson School District. Our junior college students could attend San Francisco City College (a junior college) on Ocean avenue a lot more easily than commuting to San Mateo; and residents here would pay only for actual attendance.

Church Wedding Unites S. F. Pair

Informal nuptials last Friday in the Grace Presbyterian Church united Miss Celia Agnes Hassett and James Le Stewart of San Francisco.

Before an altar decked with fall

FORMAL RITES Unite H. Dederman, Carol Gesenger At O.L.P.H. Church

Ice blue and white were combined in a unique manner last Saturday to form an impressive picture at the formal nuptial rites of Miss Carol Gesenger and Harry Dederman.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gesenger of 113 E. Vista avenue, chose an ice blue satin wedding dress, reserving the traditional white for her attending quartet. Her fairy-tale gown was fashioned with long, fitted sleeves and a full skirt, which trailed behind her. The form-fitting bodice was appointed with a triangle of seed pearl applique, from her net yoke to her waistline.

A self net crown of ice blue held her full-length veil in place. The bridal bouquet was styled of white bouvardia and begonias, with a single orchid center.

Identical gowns of white taffeta were worn by the maid of honor, Louise Mehovich; the bridesmaids, Melba Watson and Marguerita Stevens; and tiny Phyllis Bracken, seven-year-old junior bridesmaid. Their fitted bodices blended into full, hooped skirts with bustle backs, and long white mitts were worn below their cap sleeves.

The attendants' bouquets and flowered tiaras were a harmony of pink; Phyllis' shell pink asters blending into a deeper rose for the bridesmaids, and finally, a rich purple for the maid of honor.

Jack Dederman assumed the duties of best man for his brother, while three-year-old Fred Watson carried the ring. Art Valverde and Bill Nassano were ushers.

The marriage vows were read by the Rev. William Stewart at 2 p.m. Mrs. Barbara Cabral presided at the organ.

At the afternoon reception at the Flora Fox Hostess House in San Francisco, the bride's table was set with white stock and tapers in silver candelabra. A three-tier wedding cake held the place of honor.

Receiving guests at the reception, the bride's mother wore a dress of copper satin with black complements. The elder Mrs. Harry Dederman, mother of the bridegroom, donned a slate grey frock with black accessories.

When the couple left for a two-week honeymoon in Yosemite, Carol had changed to a tailored blue gabardine suit with navy and grey accessories. A pair of heirloom rhinestone clips accented her navy suede pumps.

Both graduates of Jefferson Union High School, the young Dedermans are planning to make their home in Daly City. Carol, who finished school just last June, is employed in the office of the telephone company. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dederman of 57 Tallwood drive, Harry is a star player with the Colma Boys Club basketball team. He is employed at the U.S. Government Printing Office in San Francisco.

flowers and greenery, the Rev. William Harberts pronounced the marriage vows. Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Einar Hansen at the organ, while Mrs. Louis Price sang "Because" and "At Dawning." Mrs. Mary Jones and Mrs. Sylvia Hassett lit the candles. The newlyweds, both employed in the office of the Southern Pacific Company, will make their home in San Francisco.

Labor-Management Solutions Posed In New Edition

To Alexander R. Heron, prominent California businessman, goes the distinction of having his latest book chosen the August selection of The Executive Book Club of New York. Mr. Heron is a vice-president of Crown Zellerbach Corporation, San Francisco. The book is "Why Men Work," timely study of labor-management relations published by Stanford University Press.

This book tackles a problem confronting every employer and every individual with administrative responsibility — work motivations. The author presents facts that will activate every thinking businessman, for in spite of higher wages and tremendous technological advances in industry, men have not been inspired to turn out better work.

Understanding as the open sesame to good will and efficiency in industry is the keynote of "Why Men Work." This idea predominates in Mr. Heron's earlier volume, "Sharing Information With Employees," also published by Stanford University Press. Both books are in the series "Toward Understanding in Industry."

Another study of industrial relations by Mr. Heron is scheduled for October publication. It is entitled "Beyond Collective Bargaining" and is a study of the values and limitations of this important factor in labor-management relations.

The 1949 P.A.L. football schedule is as follows:

October 15
Burlingame at Lincoln; Palo Alto at Jefferson; Sequoia at San Mateo, San Jose at South City.

October 22

Goings On At The Playgrounds

LINCOLN PLAYGROUND

By Jack Root
Lincoln Playground was presented with a banner last Friday afternoon by Elman Rose, recreation director, as a reward for winning the playground softball championship of Daly City.

I'm proud of the boys myself and I know all people residing in the Lincoln Playground district must be proud of them also. The players who took part in winning the championship are Bob Stables, Don Winslow, Gene Lorenzo, Bob Murcheson, Don Hennig, Albie Flynn, Ronald Jennings, Larry Hutchinson, Lee Coleman, Milton Ostello, Darrell Hutchinson, Owen Charles, Roy Schmidtke, Bill Lyman, Angelo Casini, Mickey Leach, and Richard Vers. The team was managed very ably by Larry Hutchinson and Gene Lorenzo.

The young people of Lincoln Playground turned out in large numbers to give moral support to their favorites last Wednesday evening when the Daly City Recreation Boxing Championships were run off. Five boys took part in the championships from Lincoln. Mickey Leach and Bill Lyman won their bouts by unanimous decision. Roy Giblin lost a close decision to Roy Rosa. Many of the spectators thought Roy had won. Tony Bautista and Richard Hennig lost. The boxing championships stirred up much interest in boxing at Lincoln during the last week.

The major sport at Lincoln now is touch football. Touch football games are played a couple of times a day. We are not lacking ability either. We have our "Alberts," our "Beals" and our "Standlees." Yes, the San Francisco 49ers have nothing on the Lincoln Football Stars as far as football spirit is concerned.

Since this is my last article for the paper this year, I want to express my feelings to the children that I have had the pleasure of knowing. I enjoyed being your director and I hope you have had a lot of fun under my leadership.

MARCHBANK PARK

By Glen Smith
Monday the gang boxed each other, getting ready for the tournament Wednesday night.

Bill Eling, Bobbie Rasmussen, Kathy Rasmussen and Jerry Eling helped water the play field in preparation for the construction in the near future.

The boxing tournament was a great success for Marchbank. Bob Gallagher, John Beneviti, Manuel Gomez, Danny Rasmussen and David Rasmussen all won their bouts.

Thursday we had a two-hour touch football game. Carl Gruen-

Small Teams Get More Runs Than Hits; Boys' Club Beats Midways

The Daly City Boys Club and Midway Village midget baseball teams must have felt football season in the air on Labor Day, for their ball game came out with a mid-sized score. The Boys Club beat the Midways, 23 to 15 in a hectic nine innings that was anything but a pitcher's battle.

Sinclair, local shortstop, collected four of his team's seventeen hits.

PLANTING TIME

September is the month for home gardeners to plant bulbs, and tulips, hyacinths and daffodils are in vogue, according to August Conci, of the Lake Merced Nursery.

Rose bushes may also be started now, Conci said, and many home owners will be wise to apply chemical fertilizer to their lawns.

wald, Bob Gallagher, Lefty Good-nol and Doug Norris lost 24-6 to Glen Smith, Douglas Vanderbloom, Nick Nicolini and Robert Thorio.

CRAFT CENTERS

By James Kraywinkel and Elizabeth Kabearv

September 2 ended another very successful summer craft and hobby program. The first part of the week the youngsters finished their unfinished work. They also exhausted our supply of plastic materials. Many of them made pyrocraft bracelets and key chains or lanyards. All of them painted their final statue and still wanted more.

Thursday afternoon and Friday the leaders took inventory and cleaned up at both Peoria and Parkview. We would like to thank the youngsters and their parents for helping to make this a busy and enjoyable summer. We hope to see everyone again next summer.

JEFF HIGH PLAYGROUND

By Joe Ballarin

Good things must end and the summer activities at the high school are no exception. Last Saturday put the "finis" to a very educational and activated program. Your sons and daughters were great little people to be with and we appreciate your help and understanding with us to give them a happy summer.

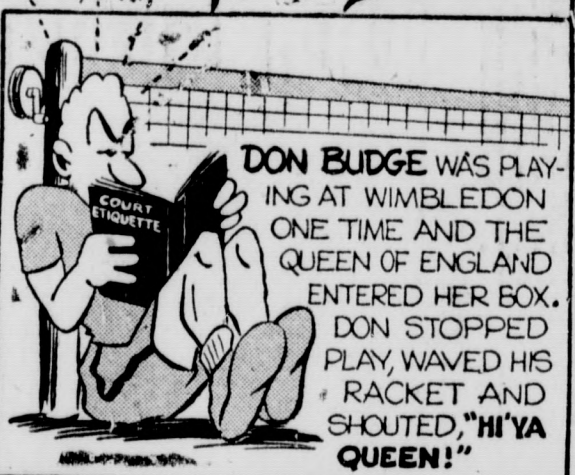

Each year gives us new ideas and next summer we hope to execute them (the ideas, not your children) on even a larger scale. 'Til then, a big thanks to you, Mom and Dad, from Ed Cassilagio and myself. And if you appreciated our efforts, then thanks to Mr. Rose for his difficult but successful task of planning and directing the recreation program in Daly City.

Stan Burton Lands 35 Pound Salmon To Lead D.C. Rod And Gun Club

A 35 pound Salmon landed by Stan Burton was the biggest catch of the day as the Daly City Rod and Gun Club went on a salmon fishing trip last weekend. Ed Meyerding and John Grunberg also landed fat "cinooks" in the neighborhood of 12 pounds.

Only angler to come in empty-handed was Percy Smith, who reported he couldn't lay his hands on a fish if he were locked in Paladini's warehouse.

At the last meeting the club went on record for propositions 6 and 15 on the November ballot. No. 6 prohibits commercial fishing within the Golden Gate, while No. 15 prohibits purse seiners within a three mile limit on the southern California coast. The club said these moves would protect salmon, striped bass and sardine fishing up and down the coast.

Next meeting is set for September 22 at the Bellevue recreation hall.

Deer Hunting Season Opens Sept. 16 in 35 California Counties

Fish and Game wardens believe California deer hunters will find above average success when the late hunting season opens September 16 in 35 counties.

Although reports submitted two weeks ago range from excellent to poor, the general State-wide outlook for the month-long open season is very good.

A bag limit of two bucks may be taken in the north coastal area, which is composed of Del Norte, Humboldt, and Trinity counties, and portions of Siskiyou, Shasta and Tehama counties.

Deer hunters in the Modoc-Lassen area may take one buck with at least three points. Modoc and Lassen counties, and portions of Siskiyou and Shasta counties form the no-forked horn area.

The Sierra area, with a bag limit of one buck, includes Imperial, San Bernardino, Inyo, Tulare, Mono, Mariposa, Tuolumne, Alpine, Amador, Sacramento, Calaveras, El Dorado, Placer, Sutter, Nevada, Yuba, Sierra, Plumas, and Butte counties, and portions of Riverside, Kern, Kings, Fresno, Merced, Stanislaus, San Joaquin, Tehama, and Shasta counties.

Child Struck Down By Runaway Truck

A 12-year-old Daly City girl sustained serious injuries 1 a s t Thursday when a runaway truck knocked her to the ground as she stood on the sidewalk in front of her home.

Donna Kollmann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kollmann, was struck down in front of 162 Parkview avenue by a truck owned by Antoinette Mello, 438 Parkview avenue. The vehicle, which had been parked in front of 109 Parkview with its motor running, crashed into the Kollmann's fence after hitting the girl.

The child was taken to Junipero Serra Hospital where she was confined over the weekend. Mrs. Mello was cited for violation of the city's hill-hold ordinance.

Employee Groups To Aid Community Chest

The appointment of Charles De Salvatore, Burlingame motor car executive, as chairman of the county-wide Employee-Group Solidarity Committee of the 1948 San Mateo County Community Chest fund raising drive, was announced today by William F. Leutenegger, Chest general chairman.

As head of the employee-group committee, De Salvatore will be pioneering an entirely new phase of Chest solicitation. It will be the responsibility of the committee under his leadership, to organize, promote and direct the collection of Chest contributions among large employee groups. The solicitation in each firm, according to De Salvatore, will be carried on by an appointed employee-chairman who will contact his fellow workers for their donations.

GI'S EDUCATION

A total of 8,103 California veterans have taken advantage of State financial assistance in furthering their education. In the Spring semester of 1948 there were 3,729 high school and college students participating.

BIGGEST CROP

Cotton is the most important cash crop in the United States. It is valued at an average of more than two billion dollars yearly. The cotton belt covers nearly one-fourth of the nation's land area, reaching from Virginia to California. This year more than 22 million acres are planted in cotton.

TREE WOOL

When early travelers to Asia first viewed cotton growing in the fields, they carried home to Europe fanciful tales of tiny lambs which grew on trees. The fluffy white fiber was thought to be "tree wool," and cotton plants were called "vegetable lambs."

100 YEARS' GROWTH

Only one hundred years ago, when California was ceded to the United States in 1848, there were but 820 people in San Francisco, according to the city's regional service committee.

In 1848 San Francisco had 200 houses, one school, one newspaper and two wharves.

The present population is estimated at approximately 900,000, exclusive of outlying residential areas outside the city limits.

Mission DeMolay Plans Dance, Whist Saturday

Starting the fall social season with a bang is the object of Mission chapter of DeMolay, which is sponsoring a combination whist party and dance Saturday night in the Mission street Masonic temple.

Admission to the dual affair will be 50 cents, according to retiring Master Counselor Wil Johnson, who will supervise the last fling of his administration.

The temple is situated at 2668 Mission street.

Although outweighed heavily the line, and penalized more than a hundred yards on clipping offside charges, the Daly City Mustangs roundly whipped the Oakland All-Stars football heroes Sunday, 19 to 0, at Jefferson stadium. The Oakland team was substitute for the scheduled Oakland eleven.

A crowd of approximately 100 football filberts was on hand to cheer the Mustangs in their outing, and was rewarded with good brand of football.

Considering it was their first game together, Coach Harlan Tundo was pleased with the Mustangs' performance, although reverse plays were shoddy at times and more practice is needed in department.

Mixing up quick-breaking by Jack Rainey, Bob Plyer, Joe Tudoni, the Mustangs used Tundo to end Hank Steele's attack that netted plenty of yardage.

Allan Pettigrew put in a day's work as blocking quarterback. Vicious defensive tackling by backfield Jack Rainey, coupled with his off-tackle running, made a standstill on the field.

The Mustangs scored early in second quarter when halfback Parker recovered an Oakland fumble on the Acorns thirty yard line. After Rainey and Plyer picked ten yards off tackle, Joe Tudoni drifted back and shot a pass. Hank Steele in the end zone.

Plyer passed again to Steel for conversion. Later in the first half, the Mustangs worked their way from a 20 yard line to the Oakland 20 on a series of bucks and tackle smashes by Tudoni, Rainey and Plyer, with Pettigrew leading the blocking. From there Plyer darted through center, shook three tacklers, and walked into pay zone standing up. The conversion attempt failed.

Rudy Degalo, fleet Oakland back, had the crowd on its feet several times as the second half opened, but he was never able to break away for more than a few yards as the Mustang second moved in to pin him down.

The Mustangs final score came on a 25 yard pass from Tudoni Steele, and that ended the score for the day. Thereafter, Coach Harlan substituted freely to give

Queen Contest Ends September 15

With only six more days remaining before deadline for final returns on all queen candidates in the Geneva-Mission Merchants Association contest, Miss Gladys Anderson today was leading the field. Tabulating a total of 17,800 votes—5,450 over her closest opponent, Alice Lombardi, Miss Anderson cast a somewhat confident glance at the crown. Winner of the beauty contest will earn the title, "Miss Geneva," and will be crowned at a coronation ball September 25.

Worldwide Air Parcel Post Service Started

With the inauguration of nationwide - worldwide air parcel post September 1, the United States can boast of the most modern and expeditious delivery service in the world, according to Acting Postmaster John F. Fixa of San Francisco. The new highly specialized airborne service, enacted into law by the 80th Congress, will afford patrons of more than 42,000 post offices in America and its possessions unexcelled shipping facilities. Transit time will be reduced to a fraction of that required by other modes of transportation. "With a scheduled plane taking off or landing within the United States on an average of every seven seconds around the clock, and an overseas-bound plane leaving our borders every 30 minutes, we stand ready to give our patrons the fastest parcel post service offered anywhere," Mr. Fixa said.

Baby Contest And Diaper Changing For Portola Fete

Now the Portola Festival and Pageant management will regale residents of the entire Bay area with still another battle royal, a spanking new contest — a baby contest. This one will be in quest of little babies, not ones big enough to be Queens of the Festival. The idea is to find, somewhere within the expansive Bay area "the perfect American baby," and when same is found, it will be offered as "a little bundle from Heaven" challenging a like product of any other section of this nation.

Entries must be from 6 to 36 months of age. Inducements to parents to enter their offspring in this contest range up to a grand total of no less than $10,000 in rewards, and there will be winners in several different divisions.

One of the more amusing and novel feature events of the Portola Festival, which is to entertain the throngs all during the month of October, will be a diaper-changing contest in which the only eligible entrants will be men, be they experienced or not. This show extraordinary will take place in Union Square on October 23, right at the height and climax of Carnival Week in San Francisco when fun and frolic will run riot.

Baby contest headquarters have been opened at Portola Festival

North County Council Goes After More Gas Tax Funds For Roads

City council representatives from Millbrae, San Bruno, South San Francisco and Daly City, comprising the North San Mateo County Council, met last Thursday at the Colma Cafe to discuss common grounds for seeking additional county aid. The group meets every two months and will convene again on the first Thursday of November at San Bruno.

After a lengthy discussion, it was decided to appoint the mayors of the four cities as a committee to contact other county cities in an attempt to get a larger share of county gas tax money for improvement of county roads serving as connecting links between cities. Such roads as Hillside Boulevard, Linden Ave. and Millbrae Ave. would be improved by such funds.

The group took the stand that, although counties and cities each receive fifty per cent of state gas tax funds, the cities actually have eighty-three per cent of the population and are therefore entitled to a larger share of road funds for the improvement of adjacent county roads.

Other items considered were improved ambulance service for northern San Mateo county residents and development of recreational facilities.

Tax Refunds May Be Available To Vets' Survivors

Dependents of deceased World War II veterans who get death compensation checks from the Veterans Administration will receive individual reminders this month of their possible entitlement to income tax refunds, and of the necessity of applying for them before the end of this year, VA said today.

The refunds, authorized by Public Law 367 of the 80th Congress, apply to certain income taxes of members of the armed forces who died while in active service between December 7, 1941, and De-

NEED MORE PARKS

For every dollar the state of California spends for parks, another dollar has been an outright gift from public-spirited individuals or groups.

Despite this fact, recreation experts report there are not sufficient park lands throughout the state.

ONLY TWO WEEKS REMAIN IN WHICH TO REGISTER FOR NOVEMBER VOTE

"Thursday, September 23, is the last date upon which persons may register to vote at the November General Election," warned County Clerk W. H. Augustus today.

In addition to the new residents of the county who must register in order to vote there are many persons who have changed their residence and others who have changed their name by marriage, all of whom must re-register.

Registration qualifications are: American citizenship, one year's residence in California, 90 days in San Mateo county, 40 days in the precinct. Persons becoming 21 years of age prior to November 2 may also register now.

One hundred and sixty-five registration deputies are conveniently located in the various areas of the county to serve those persons desiring to register. Registrations will be taken at the offices of all city clerks throughout the county and the names and locations of other deputies will gladly be furnished upon inquiry to the Election - Registration Department, courthouse, Redwood City.

"While the Board of Supervisors have by resolution declared the week of September 12 to September 18 as 'Registration Week' registrations are in progress now and eligible persons are urged to register as soon as possible," said Augustus.

PREPAREDNESS

Expect the unexpected when you drive in traffic, urges the California State Automobile Association. Keep alert; don't be caught unprepared.

Registration 54 Days Before Election Urged By County Clerks Assn.

Urging public approval of proposition No. 7, which appears on the General Election ballot November 2, R. J. Patterson, deputy county clerk, said the measure will save expense and aid in election preparation.

The effect of the proposition, an amendment to the state constitution, will be that voters must register 54 days prior to an election. Instead of 40 days as at present. Residence requirements, one year in the state, and 90 days in the county remain unchanged. Fifty-four days residence in the precinct would be required in lieu of the present 40 days.

The State County Clerk's Association is sponsoring the change to eliminate last minute rushes of registrations, which causes expense and often inaccuracies in preparation of voting lists.

State Educational Aid For Vets Explained

Veterans must have entered the armed services on or before October 3, 1946, to qualify for state educational assistance, according to an opinion just issued by the attorney general of California, Floyd D. Granger, veterans service officer, announced today.

With more and more veterans applying for aid under the state program as they exhaust their entitlement under the Federal GI Bill, Granger said the State Department of Veterans Affairs had asked for official clarification of the laws governing eligibility of the late-1946 enlistees.

The state provides up to $40 a month living expenses plus tuition fees and the cost of books and supplies to California veterans attending colleges or universities, but not while they are receiving federal assistance. The maximum expenditure for any one veteran is $1000.

Granger repeated his invitation to interested veterans in San Mateo county to get information about state educational assistance at the courthouse, Redwood City, telephone EMerson 6-5711.

4-Month Deferment For Enlistees In Aviation Cadets

The U.S. Army and U.S. Air Force recruiting officer for this area, Major Frank J. West, announced today that a four-month deferment from induction will be given any man accepted for aviation cadet pilot training. The exemption will enable those chosen for this specialized training to enter the next training class.

Major West listed the following eligibility requirements for aviation cadet training: the candidate must be unmarried; a U.S. citizen between the ages of 20 and 26½ years; and have at least one-half the necessary credits toward a degree at an accredited college or university. The last qualification listed may be waived if the applicant can pass an equivalent educational examination.

Rent-Increase Leases May Be Submitted Until December 31

Area Rent offices throughout the country received during July, 1948, a total of 56,269 voluntary leases providing for rent increases up to 15 per cent, Housing Expediter Tighe E. Woods announced today.

Under the terms of the 1948 law, landlords and tenants may voluntarily enter into valid, written rent - increasing leases between April 1, 1948, and December 31, 1948, both dates inclusive. These leases must run at least through December 31, 1949, and the maximum rent on which the percentage of increase up to 15 per cent is based would be the maximum rent which would have been in effect on March 30, 1948, in the absence of a lease. Copies of leases must be filed with the local rent office within fifteen days after execution.

LAW OF LIFE

The jaywalking pedestrian violates not only man-made law; he also defies the first law of life, self-preservation, observes the California State Automobile Association.

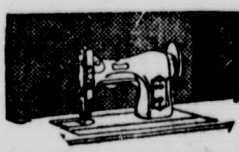

Assesses the necessary qualifications, said Major West, should go to his nearest U.S. Army and U.S. Air Force recruiting office and make application without further delay. Your recruiting office is located at 428 Market Street or 2399 Mission Street.

PTA CONGRESS AT BELLEVUE HOTEL

The Board of Managers of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers met in San Francisco's Bellevue Hotel Wednesday and Thursday. Business included further consideration of propositions appearing on the November ballot.

Highlight of the Board of Manager's Dinner, Wednesday evening, was a talk by Dr. Leo F. Cain, head of the special education department of San Francisco State College. Dr. Cain discussed the scholarships established at San Francisco State College by the C.C.P.T. with particular emphasis on radio work.

Farmers Get 54 Cents Of Consumers' Dollar

Figures compiled by the Institute of Life Insurance indicate the 1947 farmers' average return from the consumers' food dollar had reached a new level - about 54 cents.

In 1932 the farmers' overall share was only about 32 cents, while just before and during the war it reached a level of about 40 cents.

Meat and dairy products are yielding a larger share of what the consumer pays for those farm products than do such crops as vegetables and cereals. In 1932 the farmers' share of the consumers' meat dollar has run from an average of 66 cents in 1913 to 53 cents in 1935-39 period, and today is estimated at 71 cents. Poultry products now average 68 cents, compared to 60 cents over a period of three decades.

Bakery products last year gave the farmer an average of 27 cents of the consumers' dollar, and canned fruits and vegetables 20 cents.

Tobacco, wool and cotton give the farmer the lowest share of the consumers' dollar spent for their
